Trainee Solicitor, ByrneWallace LLP

To whom it may concern,

I am a recent LL.B (Civil Law) and LL.M (Business Law) graduate currently working as a customer service advisor and team supervisor in Currys PC World. The position of trainee solicitor at your firm matches my academic and work experience, alongside as my career goals. I would like to apply for the position. Attached, please find my CV as requested.

My master's degree in international and comparative business law has allowed for the development of my commercial awareness and business acumen, and my part-time work in Currys PC World continues to contribute to my leadership, communication, resilience, and team-work skills with customers, higher management, and colleagues alike. I also partake in several voluntary roles that have helped me further develop these skills. Because of this, I possess the key skills and experience to function effectively at your firm.

The prospect of working as a trainee solicitor at ByrneWallace LLP is enticing because of the stellar reputation and work culture enjoyed there, as well as the opportunity to progress professionally in such a respected firm. I'd greatly value the opportunity to speak with you and discuss the position further.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Nell Burke
