A Chara,

RE: Trainee Solicitor Programme 2025

I am writing to express my interest in the above position. Since attending the webinar, I am convinced that I would be a suitable candidate for your firm. The explanation regarding the importance of the traineeship being more than 'a foot in the door' resonated with me. It is exactly the opportunity I am looking for.

I am particularly interested in completing my traineeship in ByrneWallace having read the client testimonials on your website, one quote stands out "Great listeners, Concise in advice, Responsive and Available". This is the type of solicitor I will strive to be.

My background includes extensive legal training in legal research methodologies. I have developed many transferrable skills including, delivering findings that directly affect the outcome of ongoing cases. My commitment to precision and thoroughness in documentation ensures the judge receives clear and actionable insights which contribute to the efficient workings of the court.

I thrive in collaborative environments and understand that teamwork is an essential component of success. I particularly liked the 'open door policy' detailed in the application information videos and would welcome the opportunity to learn from the highly experienced practitioners in your firm.

ByrneWallace LLP's commitment to fostering talent and promoting a culture of collaboration aligns perfectly with my professional values. I am enthusiastic about the possibility of contributing my skills and qualities to become a committed member of your team.

Thank you for your consideration and I welcome the opportunity to discuss my application further at interview.

Mise le meas,

Olivia Keaney,
