RE: Traineeship Opportunity 2025

To whom it may concern,

As an ambitious Law and Society graduate from DCU, coupled with international experience gained during my ERASMUS year at Boğaziçi University in Istanbul, I am eager to bring my passion for law and diverse skill set to your esteemed firm.

My academic journey has provided me with a solid foundation in law, with a particular focus on new EU changes concerning data privacy and online regulation. This interest has been honed through rigorous legal research and critical evaluation during my studies, particularly in my IP and IT Law module. My time at McCann FitzGerald has further refined my ability to condense and apply complex legal information for effective client communication, which I believe would be a valuable asset at Byrne Wallace.

Having managed a society at DCU, along with academic obligations and part-time jobs, I have honed exceptional time management skills. This, combined with my experience at the Aviva Stadium, where I dealt with diverse customers in a fast-paced environment, has equipped me with the ability to excel under pressure while maintaining high customer satisfaction.

My recent experience in New York City as a bartender at The Chelsea Bell enhanced my one-on-one client relations, further strengthening the skills I have gained while at Manasik Tours. This experience, along with my time as a corporate banking intern at McCann FitzGerald, has given me a comprehensive understanding of client-centric service and the importance of fostering strong client relationships.

I am particularly drawn to Byrne Wallace LLP due to its reputation for providing comprehensive legal services, particularly in your Data Privacy and Data Protection team. The firm's commitment to excellence aligns perfectly with my career aspirations. Additionally, the emphasis on inclusivity and teamwork resonates with my belief in the power of diverse perspectives in achieving goals.

I understand that you will receive many applications for this traineeship. However, I am eager to discuss how my skills and experiences align with the needs of your firm and contribute to the success of Byrne Wallace LLP.

Thank you in advance for your time; I look forward to the opportunity for an interview.

Sincerely,
Osamah Ahmed
