

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to express my interest in the Trainee Solicitor Programme at ByrneWallace LLP. As a final-year law student at Queen's University Belfast, with a solid academic foundation and hands-on experience from my internships at Deloitte and DSO, I am confident in my ability to contribute to ByrneWallace while expanding my expertise across its key practice areas.

ByrneWallace's strong reputation for fostering individual growth and delivering top-tier legal services to both local and international clients aligns perfectly with my career aspirations. I am particularly drawn to the firm's collaborative culture and the opportunity to work across corporate, litigation, finance, and property. These areas match my academic interests and practical experience, as I have developed skills in legal analysis, commercial law, and compliance during my internships. Furthermore, my participation in the Study USA programme has sharpened my adaptability and enhanced my cross-cultural communication skills.

I also admire ByrneWallace's dedication to Corporate Social Responsibility, sustainability, and pro bono work. Having been a student ambassador and an active volunteer, I am eager to engage with the firm's initiatives and contribute meaningfully to both the firm and the community.

I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to grow and specialise at ByrneWallace and look forward to the chance to contribute to the firm's continued success. Thank you for considering my application. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experiences align with the goals of your trainee programme.

Yours faithfully,
Paul Carty
