Dear Sirs,

I am writing to apply for a position with Trainee Solicitor Programme at Byrne Wallace.

I am a 23 year old master student from Co. Meath. I have recently started the first second semester of my LLM Law and Technology Masters at Tilburg University in the Netherlands which I am studying remotely from home. I completed my undergraduate studies at the National University of Ireland Galway where I earned a 2:1 Bachelor of Civil Law degree.

I wish to join Byrne Wallace as I see this as a huge opportunity for me to really grow and develop as a Trainee Solicitor. It is my desire to work as part of a legal team which deal with matters across a wide spectrum of legal areas on a daily basis in a thriving and exciting legal environment. I believe I have a lot to offer your firm. I believe I am an ideal candidate for this position because I am a reliable, trustworthy character with a positive attitude to work alongside a passionate work ethic. Throughout my studies, I have had to work part time to support myself financially through university. This real world responsibility and pressure from an early age shows my agility, confidence and mindset, and has crucially allowed me to develop into a strong multi tasker, a clear strong communicator who understands teamwork and a worker of instinctive initiative and attention to detail. The opportunity to work in a progressive and demanding environment as part of a team at a firm of the magnitude and stature of Byrne Wallace is a challenge I am hungry and ready for. I believe I have the ability, mindset and personality required to succeed as a Trainee Solicitor as part of your vastly experienced team.

Please find attached my CV. I would be very grateful if you consider me suitable for an interview. Thank you in advance for assessing my application. I look forward to your response.

Yours sincerely,
Paul Tennanty.
