Respected Sir/Madam,

I am writing this application in order to apply for the position of Trainee Solicitor. I am very enthusiastic and looking for a challenging but rewarding opportunity, and hence my motivation to apply for this exciting job. Once I am excited about something, it is very difficult for me to stop, and that is why I have a very dynamic level of knowledge. I did lots of internship including with top law firms, where I acquired and enhanced my skills which is required as a trainee solicitor. I have an excellent communication skill. I believe that there is always scope for improvement and learning, hence I am excited to enhance and gain further experience in the field. I strongly believe that I can progress further by achieving my goal and gaining experience in a more professional manner. I'm very much determinant, hardworking, and very much possessive about precise work. Until and unless I find my work 100% accurate, till then I try my best to make it perfect because I never give space for any reasonable doubt.

With this application, I wish to apply for Trainee Solicitor. I would like to be considered for the vacancies and therefore enclose my CV for your review. I would be happy to discuss in detail about the job and discuss the future prospects.

Thank you for your consideration.

Yours sincerely,

Prayanshu Taliyan
