Job ref: Trainee Solicitor at ByrneWallace

DEAR MS LOFTUS

I am pleased to submit my application for trainee Solicitor at ByrneWallace. As a Bachelor of Laws Graduate along with a BA in Politics and Italian Language Studies who has passed all FE 1 examinations, I seek exciting opportunities that utilise my existing skillset and stimulate career growth.

I'm a highly ambitious and dedicated individual in my personal and professional life, where I constantly challenge my limitations. I thrive in situations that require critical thinking and innovative problem-solving to overcome obstacles. My exposure to different cultures as an English Language Teacher and my experience in Italy has enabled me to refine my communication approaches to clarify objectives, resolve issues and enhance outcomes.

I have gained insight into a range of legislation to include criminal law, contract law, commercial law and administrative law – each of which I excelled in. I can conduct in-depth analysis to ascertain legal positions, recommend solutions and outline relevant cases to strengthen arguments. My ability to interpret and understand legal frameworks has led to creative approaches to achieve results.

My profound ability to connect with others to discuss, deliberate and finalise decisions has resulted in positive relationships and networks. I believe in idea sharing to boost knowledge in certain areas and recognise the value of team members to build cohesion.

I'm a self-starter and effective communicator who applies an entrepreneurial mind-set to achieve deliverables. I work well under pressure and excel in situations that grant the autonomy to think outside the box and push boundaries without breaking legislative entitlements.

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter, and I look forward to hearing from you. I am available at your earliest convenience for an interview.

SINCERELY,
Ronan Brady
