RE: Trainee Programme 2023

Dear Hiring Manager

I would like to express my interest in the trainee programme with Byrne Wallace.

I have over three years experience working in a busy Dublin law firm and I would like the opportunity to apply my expertise to the trainee programme at Byrne Wallace. The majority of my time at the firm was spent in the Employment & Regulatory department, meaning I had great exposure to areas such as data protection and understood the importance of compliance with regulations of any particular field.

I believe that having an open mind and the appreciation for individual's differences is essential for maintaining good relationships in this field, both with clients and co-workers. Having come from two very different cultural backgrounds and subsequently settling down in a third, I have become a person who is both open minded, understanding of people's differences and thrive in a collaborative environment - all qualities which I believe would be much used at your firm. Also, I am fluent in Russian, as it is my native language, along with being dedicated to improving my French.

The nature of my LL. B course has taught and instilled in myself many qualities that I feel would be of benefit to your working environment. I am very thorough in any work I do and I understand the importance of research and allocation of time in order to complete a task successfully. I also greatly enjoy working as part of a group and having the ability to interact with others to solve problems or simply to gain knowledge or a different perspective - this is something that I have experienced while working in retail.

Having said that, I am also more than capable of working in my own capacity and I know that once given a task, I will do all to complete it to the best of my ability.

I am extremely dedicated to everything I do, be it seemingly irrelevant or extremely important and I aim to complete tasks with a positive attitude, I hope that is evident in the work and achievements that are laid out in my attached CV.

Thank you in advance for taking the time to consider my application and I look forward to hearing from you in the near future.

Yours faithfully,
SAMIRA AYEVA
