

Dear Byrne Wallace LLP Recruitment Team,

I am writing to express my enthusiastic interest in joining ByrneWallace LLP's Trainee Programme. Having followed your firm's progressive approach and its commitment to fostering the next generation of legal talent, I am excited about the opportunity to launch my legal career at one of Ireland's most respected and innovative law firms.

With a strong academic background in law and practical experience gained through college projects, I have developed a keen understanding of various legal areas, including corporate law and litigation, and am eager to build on this foundation. I am particularly drawn to Byrne Wallace LLP's emphasis on providing hands-on experience across diverse practice areas. The chance to work alongside top legal minds on high-profile cases and transactions excites me, as it aligns perfectly with my ambition to become a versatile, knowledgeable solicitor.

Your firm's commitment to shaping the future of law in Ireland, along with your supportive and collaborative work environment, is exactly the kind of setting in which I believe I can thrive. I am confident that my strong work ethic, analytical skills, and passion for the law will allow me to make a meaningful contribution as a trainee while continuing to learn and grow under the guidance of your experienced team.

Thank you for considering my application. I would welcome the opportunity to further discuss how my background and aspirations align with the goals of Byrne Wallace LLP and the invaluable experiences offered through your trainee programme.

Yours sincerely,
Shannon Hurley
