PROFILE

An experienced and results orientated professional who has been actively gaining experience in the legal industry since graduated with an honors LLB degree and recently completing the FE1's.

A decisive and persuasive professional with excellent communication skills and a proven ability to successfully deliver on complex projects through to completion. I am reliable and enthusiastic in everything I put my mind toward and am both comfortable and motivated to work to full potential, either on my own or collaboratively as part of a team.

I have been an intern for the past two year in Hayes Solicitors LLP, one on top 15 law firms in Ireland. As an intern, I have rotated between the Commercial and Pandemrix departments in the firm and have been trusted with a wide range of tasks of varying importance. I am seeking to further my training in pursuit of becoming a trainee solicitor and gain more varied experience in all legal disciplines.

As part of my Bachelor of Law degree, I achieved a 1:1 in my Thesis entitled "White Collar Crime in Corporate Ireland and the Injustices around the Lack of Prosecution". I also received a 2:1 honor in my overall degree.

EXPERIENCE

Legal Intern – Hayes Solicitors LLP - September 2020 to date

This interest has stemmed since my undergraduate degree where I was fortunate enough to work with Kenan Furlong, Head of both of AL Goodbody's White Collar and Corporate Reputation teams, on my final year thesis.

-Sports and hobbies: I have represented my club, school, college and county GAA teams at various levels.

-Strong passion for long distance running: I have recently completed my first half marathon.

-Enjoy traveling: Have both visited and worked in many countries including Canada and the United States during my summers abroad.
