To whom it may concern,

My name is Sinéad Lapierre. I am a final year law student in UCD. I am currently looking for legal work experience and I think that your establishment would be greatly suited to me. I have worked in the hospitality sector for the last 5 years, which has given me skills and experience that I am able to bring into the workplace. I have experience in customer service and satisfaction. I have experience working in a team from playing sports, as well as work. I have excellent communication skills and am a highly dependable employee. I am a hardworking and motivated employee and I would love the opportunity to work with you. I have work experience that has given me great skills such as teamwork, punctuality, drive and ambition.

About the company

Thank you for having taken the time to read this letter. Please take a moment to review my attached CV. I believe I have skills that would be of value to your team and I would very much enjoy working for such a reputable business. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Sinéad Lapierre
