To whom it may concern,

I have successfully passed three FE-1 examinations, and I'm currently awaiting results of a further three in the October 2015 sitting. It is my intention to start employment in 2016.

As part of my research of the different firms offering Traineeships, Byrne Wallace differentiated its offering in a number of fundamentally important ways to me. The characteristics of teamwork, a positive attitude and being driven by results resonated with me and the experiences I have had in the last number of years.

I would characterise myself as highly personable, well capable of taking responsibility and possessing an ability to learn quickly and adapt in a team environment. Byrne Wallace is particularly attractive to me for its reputation, the values it is synonymous with and, moreover, the confidence I have that it fits with my outlook on professional life.

During my Traineeship, I would like to experience a wide range of departments, clients and important cases. Training to me involves being put in scenarios of responsibility, and adapting quickly with each new experience.

Working closely with experienced partners or associates with the ability to offer practical advice is perhaps the most valued outcome for me. I have a strong work ethic and enjoy working on a personal level with people who are experienced and willing to share insights.

I would like to express my thanks in advance for taking the time to consider my application, and I look forward to hearing from you at your convenience.

Kind regards,

Stephen Doherty
