

COVER LETTER

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am excited to submit my application for the Trainee Solicitor position at ByrneWallace. With my background in law, diverse work experience across 13 internships, and a passion for analytical problem-solving, I am confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your team. ByrneWallace's reputation as a progressive, client-focused firm aligns perfectly with my ambition to develop into a well-rounded solicitor while helping deliver innovative legal solutions.

During my undergraduate degree, I gained hands-on exposure to legal work through internships in multiple sectors, including corporate law and commercial litigation. These roles sharpened my skills in research, drafting, and legal analysis, while also fostering the professionalism and client-focus required in high-stakes environments. My internship experiences gave me early insight into varying work cultures, helping me develop the agility to adapt quickly to new challenges—a quality I know will be invaluable at ByrneWallace.

In addition to my legal background, my leadership roles—such as Head Girl in school and Head of the Technical Committee at university—have instilled in me strong communication and organizational skills. These positions required balancing multiple priorities, making critical decisions under pressure, and working collaboratively within diverse teams—qualities I know are crucial for a successful solicitor.

Furthermore, my interest in international management has strengthened my ability to approach legal issues with a broader commercial perspective. This unique combination of legal expertise and strategic thinking will allow me to contribute effectively to ByrneWallace's dynamic, forward-thinking practice. I am drawn to the firm's focus on mentoring and professional development, and I am excited by the prospect of learning from some of the best minds in the field while developing my own legal career.

I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to work at ByrneWallace, where I can grow both personally and professionally in a role that demands precision, creativity, and dedication. Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to the opportunity to further discuss how my experiences and aspirations align with the goals of your firm.

Sincerely,

Stuti Dwivedi
