RE: Trainee Solicitor Programme

Dear Sir/Madam,

It is with great enthusiasm that I am writing to apply for the Trainee Solicitor Programme at Byrne Wallace. I am currently pursuing my LLM in Intellectual Property & Information Technology at University College Dublin. I am keen to work at Byrne Wallace because of the high quality of legal services provided to clients as well as its prominent reputation for developing and investing in its trainees. I am interested in applying for the programme because it provides the opportunity to not only gain experience but learn across a wide spectrum of the law during each rotation which makes Byrne Wallace unique from other law firms.

As you will see from my CV, I have strong communication and teamwork skills and have demonstrated this by taking part in a range of academic and extra-curricular activities. I am enthusiastic at the opportunity to develop professionally and personally as a trainee at Byrne Wallace. I would be delighted for a chance to apply my skills and abilities in the Trainee Solicitor Programme. I believe that my talents and motivation will be an asset to the firm and look forward to explaining how I can do this during the interview.

Thank you for considering my application for the Trainee Solicitor Programme and I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Susan Sarah Satheesh
