

Corporate

As a leading corporate practice in Ireland, the ByrneWallace LLP Corporate Group provides a dynamic, committed and experienced service to domestic and international clients across a wide range of sectors.

Our knowledge and expertise

Our market leading Corporate Group is widely known for its capacity to manage and complete even the most complex domestic and cross-border transactions in a client-focused, innovative, practical and approachable manner.

We are experts in advising on M&A, Corporate Finance, Equity Capital Markets and related corporate practice areas. We advise businesses at every stage of development from establishment to early-stage fundraising, through expansion, equity and debt financing to restructuring, acquisition or listing, across the full spectrum of corporate transactions and structures.

Sector Led

Our approach is sector-led which allows us to fully understand our client's key drivers and objectives. Our partners are trusted business advisers as well as first-rate legal practitioners, and demonstrate proven sectoral specific experience across a broad range of industry sectors including finance, technology, life sciences, pharmaceuticals, energy, healthcare, food and drink, retail and the public sector.

Client focus

Our client-focused approach and understanding of our clients' business is crucial to our success. Investing in strong long-term client relationships allows us to understand our clients needs and ensure that our advice and approach is fully aligned with their commercial and strategic objectives.

Our approach

We combine commercial acumen, extensive experience and technical expertise with a solutions-driven approach.

The expertise of our Corporate Group is seamlessly complemented by specialist input from dedicated practice areas such as commercial contracts, banking and finance, intellectual property, data protection, tax, employment, property, and commercial litigation and, on international mandates, through our extensive experience of international transactions, membership of international legal networks and our strong relationships with a large number of international law firms.
