Dear Sir/ Madam,

I am a final year Law with Economics student at University College Dublin expecting to graduate in May 2020 with a First Class Honours Degree. I am writing to apply for your Summer Internship Programme, which I learned about through an email sent to me by Niall Hollohan, UCD Programme Administrator. The brief insight I got in the email about your firm made me very interested in applying. A copy of my CV is enclosed for your attention.

As someone with a high interest in a career in corporate law and having researched your firm, I feel that ByrneWallace, one of the largest law firms in Ireland, would be a suitable fit to kickstart my professional career through your internship programme.

From my studies to date I have developed a solid understanding of the business and commercial aspect of law, by engaging in the study of modules such as Contract Law, Company Law or EU Economic Law. My interest in doing the programme comes from the opportunity to gain a more in depth knowledge and experience in commercial law. Working alongside a range of excellent legal practitioners, gaining exposure to interesting and challenging issues, and participating in a tailored learning programme, reassures me that the firm places great attention on the training and development of interns.

As evidenced in my CV I have an outstanding academic record and good analytical skills. I have demonstrated this by successfully solving problems in complex areas of law and economics during my time at UCD. I am resilient and eager to learn more which has led me to constantly put myself out of my comfort zone by studying and working in different places like Madrid, Dublin, Hong Kong and Biarritz. Thanks to my work experience I have gained great confidence in working directly with clients, whether it has been advising customers in store or helping my language students reach their maximum potential. These experiences have also improved my social and communication skills.

I believe that I would be a good fit for the ByrneWallace Summer Internship Programme. I am determined and eager to showcase my skills and abilities and would welcome the chance to work in such a highly recognised commercial law firm.

Thank you in advance for your time and consideration.

Yours faithfully,

William García Curran.
