Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the Trainee Solicitor Programme at ByrneWallace LLP. As a paralegal at A&L Goodbody and an experienced Ukrainian lawyer, I am eager to bring my strong legal foundation and diverse international perspective to your esteemed firm. Over the years, I have developed a robust foundation in legal practice, complemented by my academic achievements and international experience, making me well-suited for this opportunity.

In my current role, I have been actively involved in loan sale due diligence, contract review, and M&A preparation. This experience has sharpened my analytical abilities and attention to detail, both essential for success as a solicitor. I have also become proficient in utilizing legal technologies for effective eDiscovery and document management, ensuring that I am well-prepared to contribute to your team from day one. I have supported senior associates, solicitors, and partners in preparing documents and conducting property searches, which has provided me with practical insights into the legal processes and the importance of effective client communication.

My experience has taught me to adapt to new legal developments, client needs, and new legislative systems. Working in different environments has given me an in-depth understanding of a firm's identity and the hard work necessary for its success. Having worked in both the Ukrainian and Irish legal systems, I bring a unique perspective to cross-border cases and international clients, which I believe would add significant value to a firm with a global outlook.

ByrneWallace LLP's commitment to excellence and its reputation for fostering talent resonate deeply with me. I am particularly drawn to your focus on innovation and client service, values that align with my dedication to delivering high-quality legal solutions. I am eager to contribute to a firm that values excellence and supports the growth of its trainees.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experiences align with ByrneWallace LLP's trainee programme in more detail. I am excited about the possibility of contributing to your team and look forward to the next steps in the selection process.

Sincerely,
Yuliia Borovyk
