Dear Sir/Madam

I am writing to express my strong interest in the position of Trainee Solicitor at Byrne and Wallace, as advertised on your website. I am a Fourth Year, Business and Law student at UCD, on course to complete my degree in May 2024.

I had the privilege of working at Byrne and Wallace during my transition year work experience in 2017, and it was during that time that I developed a deep appreciation for the law and decided to pursue a career in the field. My time at Byrne and Wallace left a lasting impression on me and I regarded the firm's values, culture, and commitment to excellence.

What sets me apart as a candidate for the Trainee Solicitor position at Byrne and Wallace is my dedication to justice, ethics, and client-focused service. My previous experience at Séan T O'Reilly & Co. has since allowed me to gain practical insights into various practice areas, including litigation, corporate law, and property.

I am excited about the opportunity develop my legal skills under the guidance of your experienced team. I am eager to learn from your organization of accomplished solicitors, and I am confident that my strong work ethic, adaptability, and enthusiasm will make me a valuable asset to your firm.

Attached is my CV, which provides further details about my qualifications and experience. I look forward to the possibility of an interview to discuss how my skills and passion for the law can contribute to the continued success of your firm.

Thank you for considering my application.

Yours faithfully,
Zoe Davis.
