Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in pursuing a training contract with Byrne Wallace LLP. Having extensively explored the legal profession through internships and honed my skills in various legal domains, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my dedication and enthusiasm to your esteemed firm.

During my legal internships, I had the privilege of working across diverse practice areas, including Irish Land Law, Wills, Probates, Family Law, and criminal proceedings. These experiences provided me with a comprehensive understanding of the legal landscape and equipped me with essential skills such as legal research, drafting, and courtroom representation. My role as a Legal Intern involved collaborating closely with seasoned attorneys, researching case law, drafting legal documents, and actively participating in court hearings. This hands-on experience enabled me to develop a practical approach to legal problem-solving and enhanced my attention to detail and critical thinking abilities.

Furthermore, my involvement as a BAME Officer in the Queen's University Belfast Student's Union showcased my commitment to diversity and inclusion. I successfully organized events and initiatives to promote inclusivity and advocated for the needs of underrepresented groups, skills that I believe align with Byrne Wallace LLP's values and commitment to fostering a diverse and inclusive legal environment.

My academic background, including an LLB Hons from Queen's University Belfast, further complements my practical experiences. Additionally, I have demonstrated proficiency in languages such as English, Hindi, Marathi, and a basic understanding of Arabic, which can be valuable assets in working with diverse clients and legal matters.

Byrne Wallace LLP's reputation for excellence and commitment to professional development resonates with my career aspirations. I am eager to contribute my skills, dedication, and passion to your firm while furthering my legal education and training under the guidance of your experienced team.

I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my background and experiences align with Byrne Wallace LLP's goals and how I can contribute to the firm's continued success. Thank you for considering my application.

Sincerely,
Devanshi Pawar
